The Temporary Chair may move that the members of the temporary committees (or any other set of nominees) be elected as the permanent members; if no such motion from the Temporary Chair passes, members of the permanent subcommittee may be nominated from the floor and elected by majority vote.

B. In the event of a contested credential, the Secretary shall include on the temporary roll the names of the credentials contestants recommended by the Temporary Credentials Committee in its report to the Permanent Credentials Committee.

C. The Chair presenting a Committee's report may yield to others and may yield for the presentation and disposition of minority reports without losing their right to the floor.

D. The rules for deliberations on the reports of the Permanent Committees on Credentials, Rules, and Resolutions will be as follows:

1. The Committee Chair will each have up to five (5) minutes to present the Committee's report.

2. The Temporary Chair of the Convention shall arrange for the orderly presentation of minority reports. 3. Time for debate will be determined in the first instance by the Convention Chair, and be equally allotted to proponents and opponents of each committee report or minority report following its presentation, without intervening motion(s).

4. A vote will be taken on each minority report, which if it passes will be considered the majority report. Whether or not any minority report is adopted, a final vote must be taken on each committee report, with a majority to pass.

E. In the event that the report of the Permanent Committee on Credentials, Rules, or Resolutions shall not be agreed to when voted upon, the Committee shall reconvene to reconsider its report and shall present a new report to the Convention as soon as possible.

B. Upon conclusion of nominations, or upon approval of a motion to close nominations by a vote of the Convention, the Chair shall then conduct a vote by the Convention on the nominees for the positions where there is a contest.

Section 5. SELECTION OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTOR

B. Persons wishing to be elected as a congressional district Presidential Elector shall file on the Democratic Party of Virginia website fifteen (15) days prior to the Congressional District Convention, or by Friday, May 3, 2024 before 5:00 p.m. The filing form is available at vademocrats.org/delegateselection

C. Candidates for presidential elector shall be permitted to speak on their own behalf for two (2) minutes.

D. If only one candidate has filed for Elector, such candidate may be elected by acclamation. In the event there is more than one candidate, voting for Elector shall be conducted by the chair.

Section 6. PRESIDENTIAL NATIONAL DELEGATE SELECTION

A. The Convention as a whole shall elect four (4) delegates, two (2) male and two (2) female, to the 2024 Democratic National Convention. In accordance with the results of the March 5, 2024 Democratic Presidential Preference Primary in which only one candidate received greater than 15% of the vote in the 6th District, all delegates shall be awarded to Joseph R. Biden Jr.

B. Should one or more non-binary individuals be elected, any remaining delegate positions to be elected shall be apportioned by gender so that no single gender receives 50% plus one of any delegate or alternate slots, as governed by Sections III.A.7 and VII.C of the 2024 Virginia Delegate Selection Plan.

C. As set forth in the Call to the 2024 Democratic State Convention, persons wishing to be elected as a District-level Delegate or District-level Alternate Delegate to the Democratic National Convention shall file on the Democratic Party of Virginia website fifteen (15) days prior to the Congressional District Convention, or by Friday, May 3, 2024 before 5:00 p.m. The filing form is available at vademocrats.org/delegateselection

D. The election of National Delegate shall be as follows:
Voting for National Delegates: State delegates will vote for up to four (4) candidates on the National Delegate ballot.

Identification of Binary Gender: The gender of the first binary-gender delegate elected will be identified as either male or female.

Alternating Gender Advantage: As delegates are chosen, the advantage between male and female candidates will switch back and forth. This pattern will continue until all four delegate positions are filled.

Election of Non-Binary Delegates: If non-binary individuals are elected, they won't be classified as male or female. However, they will still contribute to the total number of delegates chosen.

Assigning Remaining Positions: If non-binary individuals are elected, any remaining delegate positions will be divided between male and female candidates. This ensures that no single gender holds more than 50% plus one of the delegate slots, in accordance with Sections III.A.7 and VII.C of the 2024 Virginia Delegate Selection Plan. If a non-binary individual is elected as the first delegate, any remaining delegate positions will be divided between male and female candidates.

E. Candidates for National Delegate shall be permitted to speak on their own behalf for two (2) minutes.

F. Each individual Delegate or alternate shall be responsible for covering their own costs associated with travel. Neither the 6th District Committee nor the Democratic Party of Virginia will cover any such costs.

G. The 6th Congressional District Democratic Chair shall certify in writing to the State Democratic Chairwoman the election of the district's national convention delegates and alternates within 24 hours of their election, as required by Section III, A, 8 of the Democratic Party of Virginia Delegate Selection Plan.

The Convention Chair may appoint such similar temporary officers as are necessary while the Convention organizes. The Convention Chair will appoint a Temporary Chair of each, Jurisdictional Caucus, Presidential Caucus and Permanent Committee; the first order of business for each such body upon first convening will be the election of a permanent chair. Alternates should not leave the convention floor without passing their Alternate credential to the Delegation Chair, and may demand return of their credential if they return to the floor.

At the direction of the Convention Chair at a time no sooner than the election of the Delegation Chairs, the Credentials Committee will distribute unclaimed delegate credentials and alternate credentials to the Delegation Chairs. Delegation Chairs who have received a Delegate's credential may distribute it to any credentialed Alternate in their delegation – and must notify the credentials committee upon having done so. Delegation Chairs who have received an Alternate's credential may distribute it to any Democrat present at the Convention willing to become a member of the delegation. A person may not hold more than one Delegate credential.

In accordance with Section 10.1 of the Party Plan, proxy voting is not permitted – only persons present at the Convention (and holding Delegate's credentials) may vote on any matter. In the event that the Delegation Chair determines that a Delegate's credential is unaccounted for, the Delegation Chair may petition the Credentials Committee Chair for cancellation and re-issuance of the credential.

With notice to the Convention Chair or her designee, a Jurisdictional Chair may permanently promote one or more alternates to delegates to replace delegates who are unaccounted for or who have permanently relinquished their slots. The Convention Chair may, prior to any convention vote, request jurisdictional chairs to report the number of delegates then credentialed and in attendance.

F. A Teller Committee, comprising the Head Teller and all assistant tellers (who need not be delegates or alternates) designated by the Convention Chair (or Temporary Convention Chair, as need be), will have responsibility for overseeing the maintenance of paper ballots. The Head Teller may assign assistant tellers among jurisdictional caucuses as needed and direct their activities. The members of the Teller Committee counting ballots for a jurisdictional caucus must include at least one member of that caucus. Disagreements within the Teller Committee may be appealed to the chair of the body conducting the election, and then to the body conducting the election, or if that body is no longer sitting, to the Convention Chair. The Teller Committee will report all results to both the chair of the body conducting the election and to the Convention Chair.

G. Ties among individuals in any contest will be decided by flip of a coin or drawing of lots, depending on the number of individuals involved in the tie, with the loser(s) considered to have placed immediately after the winner(s).

H. As provided in Section 18.3 of the Party Plan every person participating in this process shall sign a statement confirming that they are a Democrat, a registered voter within the 6th Congressional district, believes in the principles of the Democratic Party, and does not intend to support any person opposed to the Democratic nominee in the next election.

I. Except as set forth in these rules, the Convention shall be governed by the Virginia Democratic Party Plan, as amended, the Virginia Delegate Selection Plan for the 2024 Democratic National Convention, the Call to the Virginia State Democratic Convention, and Roberts Rule of Order. Rules adopted by any jurisdictional or presidential caucus must, in addition, be consistent with these Convention Rules.

J. Slates shall not be permitted at the 6th Congressional District Democratic Convention. All candidates shall be listed individually and no ballot shall list candidates as a group.
